REV. W. E. CRABTREE

PREACHES ON PAUL

Rev. W. E. Crabtree preached a powerful sermon last night at the Christian church. "A Song in the Night" was the subject and the sermon was on the Christian life as exemplified by the Apostle Paul. The preacher spoke of a bridge being tested to its limit in order to make sure that it could carry a normal load. So, he said, if Christ can comfort and strengthen in our darkest hours he surely will suffice for our everyday life.

The speaker traced the growth of Paul's Christian life through three prison experiences—his incarceration in the Philippian prison for a night, in the Caesarean prison for two years, and finally in the Roman prison. He showed how these dark days in Paul's life only strengthened his faith and made a fierce disbeliever into the foremost apostle of Christianity—a figure of world history.

ADMIRAL NEBOGATOFF.

It appears, says the Japan Mail, that when on board the Kasagi, probably on his way to Sasebo after the surrender at the Liangkold Rocks, Admiral Nebogatoff attempted to commit suicide with a pistol. The officers of the Kasagi were just in time to prevent the fatal act. It is said that the Admiral seemed quite cool and collected at the time. He had surrendered, doubtless, in order to save the lives of those under his command, but he must have had a strong desire to prove that the preservation of his own life had not entered into the account.—Kobe Herald.

STOCKHOLM, June 30, 4:15 p. m.—A telegram from Trondhjem to the Jantlands-Posten announces that almost the entire Norwegian army has been mobilized and that three classes of conscription are armed and in training. On Tuesday night, it is added, 2000 infantry were moved towards the Swedish boundary. Sixty-five cars and two engines were sent out from Trondhjem to assist in the movement of troops.

A Maine French Canadian operative in the Pepperell mill in Biddeford asked his overseer the other day for a few days' leave of absence. Being short of help, the overseer asked him if it was anything very particular that he wanted to stay out for, and he replied: "Yansir, I'm going to git marrit un I'd lak be there, that all."
